Rebels and Exiles

A Biblical Theology of Sin and Restoration

Available October 27, 2020 | $22, 184 pages, paperback | 978-0-8308-5541-4

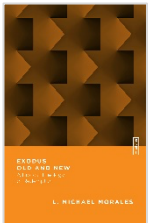

We all share an experience of exile—of longing for our true home. In this ESBT volume, Matthew S. Harmon explores how the theme of sin and exile is developed throughout Scripture, tracing a common pattern of human rebellion, God’s judgment, and the hope of restored relationship beginning with the first humans and concluding with the end of exile in a new creation.

Essential Themes in the History of Redemption

Essential Studies in Biblical Theology (ESBT) explores the central or “essential” themes of the Bible’s grand story line. Whereas existing series on biblical theology are generally open-ended, the ESBT will be limited to ten or so volumes. By restricting the entire series, the scope of the project is established from the beginning.

Taking cues from Genesis 1–3, each author teases out a unique theme throughout the entire sweep of the history of redemption. The ESBT project functions as a whole in that each theme is intentional and each volume does not stand solely on its own merits. The individual volumes interlock with one another and, taken together, form a complete and cohesive unit.

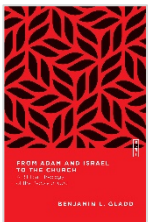

Written for students, church leaders, and laypeople, the ESBT is intended to be an introduction to core biblical-theological themes of the Bible—accessible, yet rich in content.

Exodus Old and New: A Biblical Theology of Redemption by L. Michael Morales

August 18, 2020 | $22, 224 pages, paperback | 978-0-8308-5539-1

With Israel’s exodus out of Egypt, God established a pattern for the salvation of all his people—Israel and the nations—through Jesus Christ. In this ESBT volume, L. Michael Morales examines three redemption movements in Scripture: the exodus out of Egypt, the second exodus foretold by the prophets, and the new exodus accomplished by Jesus.

From Adam and Israel to the Church: A Biblical Theology of the People of God by Benjamin L. Gladd

December 3, 2019 | $22, 200 pages, paperback | 978-0-8308-5543-8

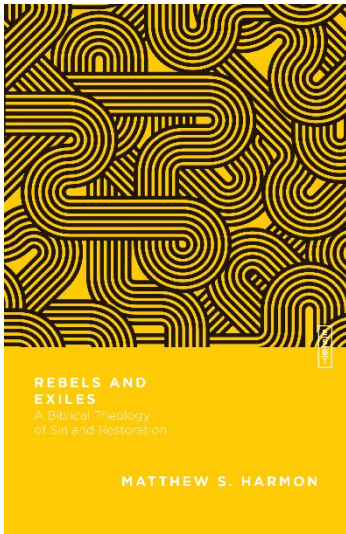

This ESBT volume addresses core questions about spiritual identity, examining the nature of the people of God from Genesis to Revelation through the lens of being created and formed in God’s image. Benjamin Gladd argues that living out God’s image means serving as prophets, priests, and kings, and he explains how God’s people function in these roles throughout Scripture.
