Diary of an Old Soul Annotated Edition

May 21, 2024 | $30, 296 pages, paperback | 978-1-5140-0768-6

In 1880, George MacDonald self-published a long poem in book form—seven-line stanzas for each day of the year expressing his longings, struggles, and joys in everyday life. Now in this deluxe edition, the complete text of MacDonald’s classic devotional resource is available with blank journaling pages and new annotations by Timothy Larsen.

George MacDonald in the Age of Miracles: Incarnation, Doubt, and Reenchantment
November 20, 2018 | $18, 150 pages, paperback | 978-0-8308-5373-1

In this Hansen Lectureship volume, Timothy Larsen considers the legacy of George MacDonald, the Victorian Scottish author and minister who is best known for his pioneering fantasy literature. Larsen explores how MacDonald sought to counteract skepticism, unbelief, naturalism, and materialism and to herald instead the reality of the miraculous, the supernatural, the wondrous, and the realm of the spirit.

Every Leaf, Line, and Letter: Evangelicals and the Bible from the 1730s to the Present
May 4, 2021 | $36, 328 pages, paperback | 978-0-8308-4175-2

Christians within evangelicalism have always had a high regard for the Bible. How has the eternal Word of God been received across various races, age groups, genders, nations, and eras? This collection of historical studies focuses on evangelicals’ defining uses—and abuses—of Scripture, from Great Britain to the Global South, from the high pulpit to private devotions and public causes.
